AGNIHOTRA

Agnihotra, an integral part of the Panch Maha Yagna, was performed in our school office in the first month of the calendar year to seek divine blessings and His guidance.

The sacred ritual was conducted in a calm and devotional atmosphere, filling the surroundings with positivity and spiritual energy.

Staff members participated with faith and devotion, offering prayers for harmony, prosperity, and well-being. The ceremony marked an auspicious beginning to the New Year and left everyone with a sense of peace, hope, and renewed purpose.

The chanting and offerings strengthened spiritual awareness and unity among the participants. As Agnihotra is conducted every week in the classrooms on a rotational basis, the event consistently reinforces the values of discipline, gratitude, and collective prayer within the school community.

BALL ACTIVITY

3. Kids pick a ball and push it with their hand or a tool through the paper ramp, aiming for it to roll into the bucket.
4. Learning outcome: Enhances hand-eye coordination, precision in movement (fine motor), and larger muscle control (gross motor) while making learning fun.

☀ From the School Desk

As we bring this edition of our school newsletter to a close, we sincerely thank our students, teachers, and parents for their unwavering support and active involvement in all school activities.

The past weeks have been rich with learning experiences, creativity, and joyful moments, reinforcing our shared vision of nurturing well-rounded individuals.

With optimism and enthusiasm, we look forward to many more opportunities to learn, grow, and celebrate achievements together.

Let us continue this journey hand in hand, inspiring young minds and strengthening our vibrant school community.
